

Advancing Portuguese language learning and teaching by supporting educators, connecting people, fostering projects, sharing resources and generating ideas.

PORTULANO

Portuguese language network - Online

Teachers and Faculty:

- Do you have difficulty finding quality, updated and relevant teaching materials for your students?
- Do you feel as though you're often "reinventing the wheel" or "preaching in the desert"?
- Would you like to be able to share effective lesson plans/materials/resources, and discuss learning/teaching strategies with your peers?
- Would you appreciate guidance and support from a colleague when adopting a new technique or tool that would save you precious time and needless frustration?

Parents and Families:

PORTULANO
CAN HELP
YOU

- Do you have trouble finding Portuguese language and culture courses or other learning opportunities for your children?
- Do you feel that your children might not be as motivated as you'd like to keep up with their rich cultural and linguistic heritage?
- Would you like to talk to other parents and families about your concerns, ideas and plans?
- Would you like to join other parents in common activities and projects?

Educational Administrators:

- Does the Portuguese Studies program at your institution suffer from stubborn problems like low enrolment and lack of funding? Are qualified teachers/faculty hard to find?
- Or do you run a successful program that can be an example of good management and practice?
- Would you like to discuss, share and plan, developing strategies with other administrators involved in Portuguese Studies?
- Would you like to create partnerships with other institutions to more effectively share and manage human and technological resources?

- PORTULANO is a free, web-based platform designed to help you connect - across distance and time - to other people interested in learning & teaching the Portuguese language;
- PORTULANO is a community-based knowledge & expertise exchange;
- PORTULANO is a collaboration space moderated and facilitated by the community members;
- PORTULANO contributes to improve the effectiveness of learning and teaching by supporting professionals, families and institutions.

www.dte.ua.pt/portulano

The community for Portuguese Language